

Nonviolent Crisis Intervention

What is Nonviolent Crisis Intervention

Training?

This Introductory Level Training Program consists of crisis intervention techniques, both verbal and physical, that provide care, welfare, safety and security for everyone involved in a crisis situation. The goal of this program is to teach foster parents proactive strategies ~ to prevent a crisis from escalating ~ with an emphasis on communication skills.

BASIC PROGRAM

The Basic Program is for foster parents who have not taken NVCI before or whose NVCI certification has expired (more than 13 months since last certification) and they are required to repeat the Basic program. This introductory program consists of twelve hours of training over a 2 day period.

Mission Statement

The Federation of Foster Families of Nova Scotia is a collective voice for all foster parents in Nova Scotia. In pursuit of this mission, the Federation will ensure assistance and support for foster families and Foster Family Associations.
