AMANDA’S GIFT BURSARY PROGRAM

Amanda’s Gift is a bursary program of the Nova Scotia Council for the Family. It was established to provide financial assistance to youth formerly in the care and custody of the Province of Nova Scotia who wish to pursue education/career development opportunities. The bursary funds will be used to assist with items such as: tuition, books, computer equipment, conference fees and adult education courses.

- Applicants must be 16-28 years of age.
- Recipients of the Amanda’s Gift bursary will continue to be eligible for consideration until completion of the degree/course for which initial support was sought.
- Former recipients of Amanda’s Gift bursaries may re-apply.
- Awards are a minimum of $250 and can go up to $1,500.

The bursary was named in honour of a former youth in care who made a generous donation of $500 to the Council. Amanda felt more needed to be done to reach out to former youth in care who are pursuing educational goals under challenging circumstances. The members of the Nova Scotia Council agreed and established Amanda’s Gift. We rely on the generosity and support of our members and the community at large to donate funds to keep the program growing. For more information on making a donation to Amanda’s Gift, contact the Nova Scotia Council for the Family.

The Nova Scotia Council for the Family is a registered charity formed in 1967 to serve member organizations with a desire to improve the range and quality of services for children and families in Nova Scotia. A Board of Directors that is appointed by member organizations leads the Council. As a registered charity, the Council issues tax receipts for qualifying donations.
